Dave,
Just a quick note about DM Tony Addessi. While conducting his evaluation he naturally asked what his status is on a move out of Manhattan. I explained that all involved individuals haven't forgotten his request and are simply waiting until the right location opens up. With your planned visit into the region in a couple of weeks and since I'm sure Tony will ask you the same question, I wanted to bring you up on my latest conversation.

I'll see you this Saturday at the Newark airport.

Sincerely,
Mark Young
